

Geo-Communication Seminar 37

Historians' talk on Ukraine from Slovenia and Japan

Date: March 29, 2022, 17:00-19:00 PM (JST); 09:00-11:00 AM (CET)

Place: Zoom Online Hybrid from ICEDS Room, Takamatsu, Japan

Saiwai-machi Campus, North, Kagawa University, Building 2, 2nd Floor.

Chairs:

Professor Dr. Yumiko Takagi, Faculty of Education, Kagawa University

Professor Dr. Toru Terao, Faculty of Education, Kagawa University

17:00-17:10

Dean's address (Professor Dr. Takeshi Nozaki, Faculty of Education, Kagawa University) and statement of purpose (Professor Emeritus, Dr. Satoshi Murayama, Kagawa University)

[Part 1: 17:10-17:50]

17:10-17:30

Dr. Michael Shiyung Liu, Professor, University of Pittsburgh, USA / Shanghai Jiao Tong University, China

Geopolitics, falling globalization, and the Anthropocene: historical thoughts on the Russo-Ukrainian War

17:30-17:50

Dr. Satoshi Murayama, Professor Emeritus, Kagawa University, Takamatsu, Japan

Are more resource wars on the way? The new wall Putin's Russia is building and the Ukraine crisis.

[Part 2: 18:00-19:00]

18:00-18:30

Dr. Žarko Lazarević, Professor, Institute of Contemporary History, Ljubljana, Slovenia

Ukraine War in the Historical and Geo-strategical Context in 20th Century Europe

18:30-19:00

Free Discussion

Living Spaces Project : <http://dlpweb.ed.kagawa-u.ac.jp/main/>

Organized by ICEDS (= International Consortium for Earth and Development Sciences, Kagawa University)
Supported by Kaken 20H01523 and JSPS/MESS Bilateral Program

---